Description. The CIOMS Working Group III envisioned that all manufacturers of pharmaceutical products will harmonize their practices regarding Company Core Safety Information (CCSI) that their internal, central Company Core Data Sheets for a marketed drug must contain. As introduced by CIOMS Working Group II on periodic safety update reporting, CCSI consists of the minimum essential information that a manufacturer requires to be listed in all countries where the drug is marketed; it excludes ...

What is CIOMS?
Guideline for Preparing Core Clinical Safety Information on Drugs (CIOMS III). In addition, CIOMS was involved in publishing an initiative to standardise the use of medical terms associated with adverse drug reactions. However, this has not been widely accepted in pharmacovigilance practice. The CIOMS guidelines are individually published in paper-back book form, available on payment to CIOMS in Geneva.
