and with such engaging leading characters. I have just reread this book, and found it every bit as good as on first reading some time back. I don't know how Grace Burrowes does it, but her books are so beautiful, and always her men extremely attractive in their love and understanding of her 'heroines'.

Christian Severn (The Captive) was captured by the French, tortured, and left to die. He makes his way back to England to find his dukedom in disarray, his surviving family faring no better, and yet, Gillian, Countess of Windmere, has more challenges in store for Christian. Sebastian St. Clair (The Traitor) was responsible for Christian ' s captivity, and has resigned himself to dying at the hands of the Englishmen seeking revenge for the treatment at Sebastian ' s hands, but Milly ...
